

Programme of Alter annual conference

5th July

9:-00 – 9:30

Registration

9:30 – 10:00

Opening session

Historical development of the European Society of Disability Research.

Henri-Jacques Stiker (Université Paris-Descartes, Paris)

Introduction to the First European Society of Disability Research Conference

Isabelle Ville (Ehess, Paris)

10:00 – 12:30

Session 1 - Chair: Serge Ebersold

L'inclusion et l'exclusion: Le débat allemand dans le domaine de l'éducation.

Inclusion and exclusion: the German debate in the field of education.

Siegling Ellger-Rutgardt (Humboldt Universität Berlin Deutschland)

Promise lost? Disability rights in the era of austerity.

Paula Campos Pinto (Instituto Superior de Ciências Sociais e Políticas, Lisboa, Portugal)

Employment of persons with disabilities and "inclusive corporate culture" of employers: a literature review.

Yuliya Kuznetsova (NOVA Norwegian Social Research, Oslo, Norway)

Break

Quelle théorie de la justice sociale pour les personnes handicapées?

What theory of social justice is best fit for persons with disabilities?

Philippe Sanchez (Université Catholique de Louvain, Belgique)

Space, technology and embodied motions: exploring social participation for Norwegians with mobility disabilities.

Jannikke S. Vedeler (Norwegian Social Research, Oslo, Norway), Cecilie H. Ankvik (Nordland Research Institute, Bodo, Norway)

Open discussion

12:30

Lunch

14:00 – 15:45

Session 2 - Chair: Anne Marcellini

Constructing normality – constructing disability: Theoretical reflections on an ambivalent relationship.

Anne Waldschmidt (University of Cologne, Germany)

The existence of autism in China: An ethnographic inquiry.

Cindy De Clerck (Leuven Catholic University, Leuven, Belgium)

The effects of sport on the experience of acquired motor disability: a mere creation of a "super-crip" that reproduces the legitimate body?

Carolina Ferrante (Universidad Nacional de San Martin, Buenos Aires, Argentina)

The life world of ambiguity and ambiguous body: The dis/abled body of blind people in Thailand.

Prachati Kata (Amsterdam Institute for Social Science Research, Amsterdam, The Netherlands)

Break

15:45 – 17:15

Session 3 - Chair: Patrick Devlieger

Life-long literal education to people with mental disability.

Mariko Fujita (Kagayaki Kobe, Japan) & Shinsuke Fujita (Chiba University Hospital Japan)

Harcèlement et brimades envers des élèves en situation de handicap, et impact sur leur bien-être et leur qualité de vie.

Harassment and bullying of students with disabilities: Its impact on their well-being and quality of life.

Mariane Sentenac, Emmanuelle Godeau, Catherine Arnaud (Université Paul Sabatier, Toulouse, France), Aiofe Gavin, Michal Molcho, Saoirse Nic Gabbhain (National University of Ireland, Galway, Ireland)

Disability and violence: a challenge to notions of structure and agency in disability studies.

Halvor Hanish (Oslo University Hospital, Oslo, Norway)

Open discussion

17:15 – 18:45

Welcome meeting of the European Society for Disability Research

18:45

Cocktail

6th July

8:45

Registration

9:00 – 10:40

Session 4 - Chair: Jean-Sébastien Eideliman

An outsider theory of disability.

Rene Jahiel (Ecole Libre des Hautes Etudes, New York)

Development of extended sets of disability measures for surveys: Washington Group on Disability Statistics, Budapest Initiative, and United Nations Economic and Social Commission for Asia and the Pacific.

Mitchell Loeb (NCHS, Washington, DC, USA and Washington Group on Disability Statistics)

Comparing American and European Disability Protests since 1970.

Sharon Barnatt (Gallaudet University, Washington DC, USA)

La disparition d'une catégorie professionnelle chez les sourds-muets.

The disappearance of an occupational group of deaf and mute people

Yann Cantin (EHESS, Paris, France)

Break

10:40 – 12:30

Session 5 - Chair: Jerome Bickenbach

L'accompagnement sexuel des personnes en situation de handicap: essai d'une sociohistoire.

Supporting the sexual life of persons in situations of disability: sketch of a social history.

Pierre Brasseur (Université de Lille, Lille, France)

Devenir handicapé, rester autonome: Quand l'autonomie personnelle passe par le conjoint.

Becoming disabled and remaining autonomous: When personal autonomy depends upon one's spouse.

Aurélien Berthou (Université Paris Descartes, Paris, France)

Enjeux d'autonomisation dans la prise en charge du handicap entre dépendance et engagement des jeunes usagers/patients.

Taking charge of mental disorder: Trade-off between dependency and engagement of young users/patients.

Audrey Parron (Université de Toulouse, Toulouse, France)

Les formes sociale et symbolique d'une parentalité singulière.

Social and symbolic aspects of a special parenthood.

Catherine Landemaine (Laboratoire SANTESIH, France)

Open discussion

12:30 – 13:00

Concluding remarks

12:30 – 13:00

Lunch

14:30 – 16:00

Alter Editorial Board meeting

16 :00 - 18:30

General Assembly of AESDR (members only)

During the last session, there will be simultaneous translations in English for the French language presentations. All the presentations and discussions provided during the conference will be translated in French Sign Language.